THESDAY EVERING OCTOBER 13."

POPULAR SENTIMENT AT THE NORTH.

If the signs of the times are not deceptive and fallscious, we think there can be no doubt but that the current of public sentiment at the North | Bandelol is rapidly setting in a direction favorable to the erasation of the war. The "soher second thought of the people" is evidently doing its Watton ... work. The thinking men of the North are be- Livedu gioning to discover that the triumph of fanatistitutions. On the contrary, they are discover- 3503 Brown's plurality, 1445. ing that the destruction of both is involved in our subjugation, and that the loss of our liberty naturally and necessarily draws after it the loss of stands as follows: their own independence and personal rights The specier of military despotism already stares them in the face, and they plainly see that the destruction and obliteration of State rights and State lines in the South will desiroy all gnarantoes for their observance and perpetuity in the North:

Such facts are well calculated to cause the people to stop and think in their mad career. Panaticism, hatred and projudice have led them by the nose for the past three years, but they are gradually disentangling themselves from the | Car meales in which they have been caught, and mit, an show a manifest unwillingness to advance furthat in the work of our and their own destruction. The spirit of volunteering is dead, the them it must, and when their present army in optermines who are elected. the field is defeated, or goes out of service. which the larger portion of it will do in May next, their power will be effectually broken down, and they will be no longer in a position to carry on an offensive warfare against us.

There is much in all this to give us encourage. ment, and to stimulte the South and Southern men to redoubled energies. The liberties and independence of the American people, wan from British tyrauny and bequeathed to us by our involutionary accestors, are wholly dependent upon our success in this war. Both at the North and the South, thry will survive or perish with us, and freedom will be heard to shrick a our fall. With the sword and the purse once in the firm grasp of LINCOLN, the masses of the people would be impotent to wrest them from blin, the freedom of the ballot buy would become a fares, and the people would be reminded that an uncomplaining obedience to power and an thority was the first duty of the citizen. The reflective and well-informed purson of the with his war palicy, will ere long find himself struggling against an irresista and apprions the Northern public may can not believe they are yet prepared to pass under the wolfa themselves, which they must de If they persist in their tesame warfare upon us Of this incl they are becoming more sensible every day, and are correspondingly disinclined to give their countenance and encouragement to the further prosecution of the war. The elections which come of meday in Pennsylvania and Ohio, the result of which we shall very soon how, will throw a volume of light upon this and it should that of the people of the Confedecalamity that looms before us.

THE PROVISION QUESTION. The ambaistence question is very properly on

The unprecedentedly high price of provisions and paid are not spinanced by a scarcity of suppline. The markets are abundantly supplied, yet in every section of the country prices are so high as to produce surious inconvenience, if not defrees. In some sections they have reached a point already where bonest subsistence among the poor and these of slender means is almost out of the question. Yet, as the Savannah Republicus remarks, the product of the earth for the last two years has been ample for the comfortable subsistence of all the inhabitants. It reads but to be properly apportioned to supply the wants of ad. What is worse, there is nothing hopeful to look forward to in the outure. even with the certainty of an abundant supply from the agricultural latious of the present year. Matters, material of growing better, are daily becoming worse.
